PREFACE

THIS list was begun as an expansion of Miss Mary Medlicott's Abbreviations in Book Catalogues which was issued in 1906 by the Boston Book Company as Bulletin of Bibliography, pamphlet No. 15. It has so far outgrown the limits of the original list as to have become a quite independent production. Special thanks, however, for the original plan and for much of the subject matter of the present list are due to Miss Medlicott's list and to a manuscript List of bibliographical terms and abbreviations compiled in 1906, under the direction of Mr. E. C. Williams, by Miss Eliza Townsend for the use of the Western Reserve Library School.

Originality can hardly be claimed for any work so obviously dependent on previous similar attempts nor, although longer than most previous attempts, can any claim to more than approximate completeness be made for this list. Perhaps the chief point of difference from other lists is the greater attention paid to terms and abbreviations frequently used in current catalogues of second-hand booksellers but which, as they describe peculiarities of individual copies, are seldom found in more formal bibliographies. Arbitrary symbols used only in particular works are usually explained in the works themselves and are therefore seldom included here. The inclusions are almost entirely bibliographic rather than literary, that is, confined to terms used in the description of books rather than in the titles proper. The chief exception is the inclusion of a partial list of honorary titles likely to be met in author entries. Many terms have been included which are almost certain to be superfluous for the expert bibliographer but, as the expert seldom ought to need an elementary list to aid him, the needs of beginners have been given first consideration.

It is perhaps unnecessary to state that this is a list of terms in actual use, good, bad and indifferent, and not a code of forms recommended for use in catalogues and bibliographies. Some unusual terms used in descriptions of manuscripts and incunabula have been omitted. For these, Cappelli's Dizionario de abbreviature, Chassant's Dictionnaire des abréviations and Prou's Manuel de paléographie latine et française (3d ed. Par. 1910) should be consulted. Older spellings which are not radically different from present usages are not usually indicated. They can easily be found in good dictionaries.

The lists of honorary titles and of places of publication are confessedly incomplete. For such abbreviations, titles and place names as are omitted, consult the authorities cited at the head of each of these two sections.

Special thanks are due to Mr. A. Hafner of G. E. Stechert & Co., New York, for current catalogues from which many of the entries were taken; to the Grolier Club and its librarian, Miss Ruth S. Grannis, for access to bibliographic works in the club library; to Mr. A. J. F. van Laer, Archivist, New York State Library, for corrections and additions in the Dutch, French and Italian sections; to Miss Gudrun Holth of the New York State Library School for similar help in the Swedish and Danish-Norwegian sections; to Mr. John T. Fitzpatrick of the Legislative Reference Section of the New York State Library for correcting the proof of the Spanish section; to Mr. Adam J. Strohm of the Detroit Public Library for correcting that of the Swedish section and to Miss Edna M. Sanderson of the New York State Library School for correcting proof. Whatever accuracy or usefulness the list may possess is in large part due to their assistance.

F. K. W.

NOTE TO THE REVISED EDITION

In the present revision a number of errors which crept into the final proofs, in spite of repeated readings by several competent collaborators thoroughly familiar with the languages represented, have been corrected. Several librarians and booksellers have given further aid in the revision. Among them special mention is due to Mr. Alfred Hafner and the staff of G. E. Stechert & Co., and to Mr. Moth and Miss Plummer of the New York Public Library. Although an honest attempt at accuracy has been made it is not probable that all old errors have been detected or all new ones avoided. It is hoped that such as do remain may not prove misleading, however much they may vex the soul of the fastidious bibliographer.

Several considerations, among them the expense of bibliographic publications, have prevented any considerable changes in content or scope. This is still a tentative preliminary list based, both as to inclusion and exclusion, on observation of the difficulties most frequently met in the use of ordinary trade bibliographies. It can, consequently, claim neither well-balanced proportion, entire consistency nor completeness.

A very considerable number of other abbreviations and terms, less common but in frequent use, has been collected, and librarians and booksellers are invited to contribute (with definite citations of authority or source) any unusual ones with which they may meet, for inclusion in a probable supplementary list. Even with the greatest amount of competent assistance the difficulties inherent in the compilation of a list like this are great; without such assistance any satisfactory compilation is practically out of the question.
